

EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE PROCEDURE

Australasian Assistance Pty Ltd operates on behalf of our clients as DUAL Assist and are your Emergency Assistance provider, available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

What do we cover?

Medical Claims

Should the Insured become unwell overseas and requires medical attention please call DUAL Assist to ensure you are getting the best treatment available. If medical evacuation is required, you must ensure you contact DUAL Assist prior to evacuation. They have over 20 years experience and will ensure you receive the best available assistance. A failure to contact DUAL Assist may result in expenses relating to the evacuation not being paid.

Minor Incidents do not need to be reported unless hospital admission or evacuation is required.

DUAL Assist may also be contacted for general medical enquiries. You may wish to contact them for advice on an existing Medical Condition or the best way to obtain Medical Treatment in an area you may be visiting or intending to visit.

The attached form titled "Emergency Assistance Protocol" outlines the type of information required when contacting DUAL Assist.

So we may process your claim quickly, please ensure you submit all supporting documentation (statements, reports, receipts, accounts etc.) with a fully completed claim form. An incomplete claim form could lead to delays in settlement.

General Claims (if applicable)

For Baggage, Money or other claims, it is important to report the incident to the relevant authority i.e. Police, Airline etc. and obtain written verification from that authority as soon as possible. Upon returning to Australia, you will be required to complete a claim form attaching all relevant statements.

So we may process your claim quickly, please ensure you submit all supporting documentation (statements, receipts, valuations, accounts etc.) with a fully completed claim form. An incomplete claim form could lead to delays in settlement.
