

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Please read the following before proceeding to complete this proposal form

When completing your proposal, you are obliged to report and provide full details of all circumstances which have become known to you and which would put a reasonable person in your position on notice that a Claim may be made against you. This is important to ensure that you make proper disclosure in order that your entitlement to full indemnity under your new policy is not placed in jeopardy.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of Hole in One insurance with an Insurer, you have a duty to disclose to the Insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know about yourself and others to be insured, is relevant to the Insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, upon what terms. You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the Insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of Hole in One insurance.

Your duty however, does not require disclosure of matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the Insurer;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that your Insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of his business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by their Insurer.

(It should be noted that this duty continues after the Proposal Form has been completed up until the time the Policy is entered into.)

Non-Disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the Insurer may be entitled to reduce their liability under the contract in respect of a Claim or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the Insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract in its entirety. It is therefore vital that you make sufficient enquiries BEFORE you complete your Proposal Form and BEFORE you sign any declaration that there has been no change in the information provided.

Surrender or Waiver of any Right of Contribution or Indemnity

Where another person or company would be liable to compensate you or hold you harmless for part or all of any loss or damage otherwise covered by the Policy, but you have agreed with that person either before or after the inception of the Policy that you would not seek to recover any loss or damage from that person, you are NOT covered under the Policy for any such loss or damage.

Contract by the Insured Affecting Rights of Subrogation

If the proposed contract of insurance includes a provision which excludes or limits the Insurer's liability in respect of any loss because you are a party to an agreement which excludes or limits your rights to recover damages from a third party in respect of that loss, you are hereby notified that signing any such agreement may place your indemnity under the proposed contract of insurance at risk.

Completing this Proposal Form

- Please answer all questions honestly, giving full and complete answers.
- It is the duty of the Applicant to provide all information that is requested in the Proposal Form as well as to add any additional relevant facts.

Note: A relevant fact is a fact and/or circumstance that may influence the evaluation of the risk by the insurer. If you have any doubts about what a relevant fact is, please do not hesitate to contact your broker.

- If the space provided on the Proposal Form is insufficient, please use a separate signed and dated sheet in order to provide a complete answer to the question.
- The Proposal Form must be completed, signed and dated by a person, who must be of legal capacity and authorised for the purpose of requesting Hole in One insurance for the organisation who acts as the Applicant.

This proposal form DOES NOT BIND the Applicant or the Insurer to complete the insurance but will form part of any insurance.

Privacy Collection Statement

We are committed to protecting your privacy and complying with the Privacy Act 2020 (NZ) (Privacy Act).

We use your information to assess the risk of providing you with insurance, provide quotations, issue policies and assess claims, on behalf of the insurers we represent. We also use your information to administer any policies we have issued to you and may do so by mail or electronically, unless you tell us that you do not wish to receive electronic communications. If you do not provide us with full information, we may not be able to provide insurance or assess a claim. If you provide us with information about someone else, you must obtain their consent to do so.

We provide your personal information to the insurer we represent when we issue and administer your insurance. When providing a quotation or insurance terms, we will tell you if the insurer is overseas and if so, where they are. We may also provide your information to your broker and our contracted third-party service providers (e.g. claims management companies). If a recipient is not regulated by laws which protect your information in a way that is similar to the Privacy Act, we will take reasonable steps to ensure that they protect your information in the same way we do or seek your consent before disclosing your information to them. We do not trade, rent or sell your information.

Our Privacy Policy contains more information about how to access and correct the information we hold about you and how to make a privacy related complaint, including how we will deal with it. By providing us with your personal information, you consent to its collection and use as outlined above and in our Privacy Policy. Ask us for a copy of our Privacy Policy via email at privacy@dualnewzealand.co.nz or access it via our website using the following link.
